

OHIO LEGISLATOR
TALKS AT ELKHART

Sen. Willis Supports Republican Candidates—Young Thief Sentenced.

ELKHART, Oct. 24.—(Special)—A crowd of 250 persons composed the audience which gathered at the Buckeye theater at 2:15 Tuesday afternoon to hear Sen. Frank P. Willis of Ohio. The speaker left for Nappanee directly after the talk. After the theater adjourned and played for a half hour, after Mrs. Violet Rhy Parks of Nappanee had accompanied by Mrs. Frank Siskwood, Governor of Elkhart, played a violin solo. Judge W. B. Hill introduced the speaker. Proceeding to the address of the speaker, Mrs. Siskwood, of South Bend gave a brief talk, mainly directed to the women. State Sen. A. H. Boudway, whose guest Sen. Willis was during his stay in Elkhart, brought the latter to this city from Nappanee last night in his car. A committee from Nappanee will take the Republican campaigner there.

In the superior court Tuesday afternoon, Paul Stewart of 927 Pearl st., 17 years old, pleaded guilty to entering the Omega Drug store, 521 S. Main st., at 1:30 in the morning of Oct. 13 for the purpose of stealing articles of merchandise. Judge Hill suspended his sentence until by his actions he may demonstrate that he ought to be punished, at which time he will be brought into court and sentenced to from two to 14 years in the reformatory at Jeffersonville. The youth was then paroled to Paul Farley, his guardian. Judge Hill cautioned the boy to keep away from pool rooms and billiard halls. Carl Paulson of 233 Pearl st., who was arrested with Stewart, has not been arraigned.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Schutt of 262 W. Lexington av. entertained 30 persons at a Halloween party in honor of Mrs. Roy Becker of Detroit, a niece, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. A. Olds of 423 W. Marion st.

In the city court Tuesday morning Judge Walker annulled the automobile license of John Mosher and assessed him $35 after Mosher had pleaded guilty to driving an automobile while intoxicated. After being arrested on E. Jackson rd., Mosher entered a plea of not guilty and was released on a $50 bond to appear Wednesday morning. In addition to the fine Mosher paid $35 costs.

When about to climb a chair to reach a pair of gloves A. N. Bickel of 156 St. Joe st., 75 years old, a retired New York Central railroad engineer, fell and suffered a fracture of the left hip. After an X-ray examination was taken the patient was returned to his home.

EXPLAINS UTILITY
MERGER PROPOSAL

WARSAW, Ind., Oct. 24.—At a special meeting of the Warsaw city council held Tuesday night, Harry Red, representing the Interstate Public Service corporation, with headquarters in Indianapolis, presented a plan whereby the Interstate Public Service corporation will absorb the Warsaw Electric Light and Water company.

Soon after this a accomplished, Red said, the company will be in a position to proceed with proposed improvement in the Warsaw water system.

WARSAW CLUBS URGE
NEW POLICEMAN

WARSAW, Ind., Oct. 24.—The Women's Federated clubs of Warsaw have petitioned the city council for the appointment of a police woman, whom they would like to look after wayward girls.

Councilman John Hansman, opposing the idea, largely because of the cost, has pointed out that Indianapolis and Muncie have experimented with police women and have given up the idea. The petition has been referred to the safety committee of the city council.

THE FALL OF THE RAINBOW
The minute that the clouds are gone
And April shows are blue,
The Pixies gather in the dawn
With pots of colored dew.
And, leaping over stream and ridge
In hurrying crowds they go,
To paint the flimsy rainbow bridge
That spans the world below.

All summer it is clearly seen
By pleased and wondering folk,
Whom rain has swept the heavens clean.

Of mist and dew and sparkle—
A glowing scene of brilliant dyes,
That shows our birds and ways
Across the quiet evening skies
Beyond the fading storm.

And then, when Autumn's here again
Jack Frost, the old man in hand,
Conspicuously shows his hidden don
In number one in the land.

And, when the snow has fallen
And the cold has set in,
To chop the rainbow down!

And all the gorgeous colors fall
Upon the white like rain,
And the rainbow one and all
With red and golden stain.
The children see the autumn glow
When comes the morning light
And they with wonder for they know
Jack Frost was out last night!

A LONG LOW GROWL
It is a little late, but it still may be said that Mr. Kipling is the man who talks like a bear.

GOLDEN RULE EVEN
WORKS WITH WATER

By NEA Service.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 24.—Laws pertaining to water rights are complex, devious and contradictory. Yet Rome G. Brown, lecturer on the law of water rights in the University of Minnesota law school, says they practically can be reduced to 17 words:

"All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."

Yes, the Golden Rule, Mark 7:12. "Under the laws in some states today," says Brown, "surface waters, as a 'common enemy,' can be driven off as a burglar, without regard to how they are gotten rid of or scattered. This is in line with the old common law rule."

"Subsequent decisions show changes in the old rule in many states; the recognition of the principle of the Golden Rule. This, in effect, means the preservation of the surface waters, but the method of their disposition must be such as to show proper regard for the owners of other lands."

"I regard the Golden Rule as the most concise and adequate statement that has ever been announced of the present and growing principles of the law of 'reasonable use.'"

NEW TO STUMP STATE
IN INTEREST OF G. O. P.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 24.—Despite a spirited refusal to speak in favor of the candidacy of Albert J. Beveridge for United States senator at the beginning of the present campaign, Sen. Harry S. New, whom Beveridge defeated for the nomination today wired Republican state Chairman Lawrence Lyons that he will work for the success of the Republican ticket. He made an exception, however, that he will not speak in Indianapolis.

Sen. New probably will speak in Bedford during the first four days of November when he will be in the state. Republican state leaders had asked New at the start of the campaign to speak for Beveridge to which New replied he would follow the same itinerary travelled by Beveridge in 1916, when the latter made no speeches for New.

REPORT SEVEN WILD
WOLVES NEAR WARSAW

LEESBURG, Ind., Oct. 24.—Seven wild wolves were reported today to be attacking livestock in the vicinity of the Bert McClone farm, northwest of Leesburg.

One of the wild animals early today walked across a field which McClone was plowing and approached to within a few yards of McClone.

Last evening Mrs. McClone saw one of the wolves in the front yard near her home.

Since Monday when a pack of six wolves were driven from a swamp near the Roy Teeple farm many farmers have refused to allow their children to go to school.

Gaming Pieces 7,000 Years
Old Are Sent to America

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Gaming pieces used 7,000 years ago by the sporting brotherhood of ancient Egypt will shortly arrive in America.

Included is a set of ivory lions, beautifully carved, which were used in some old-time game of chance. One of these lions will find its home in Chicago.

These exports are the fruits of two years' exploration carried on by the British School of Archaeology. They include over 2,000 prehistoric implements used by the earliest Egyptians. Among them are flint instruments which show that 5,000 B. C., the people of Egypt were among the first hunters of big game.

Near East Prince to Quit U. S.
for Native Isle and Many Wives

CLEVELAND, Oct. 24.—The United States is not what it's "cracked up" to be.

So declares the Prince of Timon, who, after a year's residence in America, most of which was spent in Cleveland, will return to his native land.

Timon is an island in the Mediterranean sea, 50 miles from the coast of Palestine. It is ruled by Martello Abdellah, under a British protectorate. Any mature male among its 25,000 brown-skinned population can take unto himself as many wives as he wants, needs or can afford. It doesn't cost much to dress them. A lion cloth is the only thing worn in select circles, or outside of them, for that matter.

While in America the Prince took his mother's name. He is known here as Maurice Newman. He resides at No. 2561 E. Forty-ninth st.

Newman has seventeen brothers older than he who are in line for succession to his father, and thus has a slim chance of being king.

However, when he returns, he will discard the garb of civilization, take unto himself a few wives, and who would want to be a king, anyway?

CURE FOR MALARIA
IS FOUND AT LAST

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A cure for malaria, the dread disease prevalent in tropical countries, is, according to Sir John Bland Sutton, the famous English surgeon, at last in sight.

He has returned to London after a lengthy tour with his wife of the Amazon and the Brazilian forests.

"Our principal investigations centered in birds and butterflies of the country, of which we have brought home numerous specimens, and also in diseases such as leprosy, tuberculosis and malaria," said Sir John.

"I found that the scientists who were stationed there investigating the causes and effects of malaria had been made in regard to leprosy and tuberculosis. The world is made very encouraging advancement. "Malaria has been overcome as a disease, and is not likely to trouble the world much longer. I found, cases."
